

SIMON CORONEL 'MANIPULATIONS' MELBOURNE

12 - 18 FEBRUARY
PERTH TOWN HALL
$25

SIMON CORONEL
IS VERY, VERY GOOD
WITH HIS HANDS.

International award-winning Simon Coronel presents his astonishing insights into the world of manipulation, dexterity and illusion. Witness world-class sleight of hand, discover the secrets of manipulation, and be amazed when the impossible happens mere inches in front of your eyes.

Simon Coronel is one of the most skilled illusionists in the southern hemisphere. Using pure dexterity and no tricky props, he creates live performance art that seems utterly impossible.

He is the fourth Australian in history to win an award at the FISM World Championships of Magic and Illusion in Beijing in 2011 and has won more than fifteen international awards across the globe.

Simon has appeared on television in four countries, and is one of the few Australians to be regularly invited to perform at the world famous Academy of Magical Arts in Hollywood. His unique skills are constantly in demand around the world; whether as a corporate speaker or an entertainer at private parties.

Prepare to be amazed by what can be achieved by two hands, ten fingers, and an astounding degree of skill.

AVAILABLE FOR INTERVIEW: Simon Coronel is available for phone interview now.

ARRIVING IN PERTH: Monday 6 February 2012.
